Living God's Way in Singleness

Practical guidance, Scriptures, and prayer prompts

Core Scriptures

- 1 Corinthians 7:32–35 — Undivided devotion to the Lord.
- Proverbs 4:23 — Guard your heart, for everything flows from it.
- Jeremiah 29:11 — God's plans give hope and a future.
- Philippians 4:6–7 — Prayer brings peace that guards your heart and mind.

What Every Single Should Know

- Singleness is a calling for this season—use it to grow, serve, and heal.
- Establish boundaries that honor God (time, media, dating expectations).
- Invest in formation: Bible, prayer, church community, mentoring.
- Develop life skills: finances, health, vocation, hospitality.

How to Pray in This Season

- Ask for a heart that pleases God before a heart that pleases you.
- Pray Psalm 139:23–24 for search, refining, and guidance.
- Intercede for friends, church, and the nations—enlarge your love.
- Surrender relationships to God's timing and wisdom.

Weekly Rhythm (Sample)

- Daily: 10–15 minutes in Scripture (Gospels + Proverbs).
- 3x/week: Serve or encourage someone intentionally.
- Weekly: Fast one meal to seek clarity; journal victories and lessons.
- Monthly: Meet a mentor for accountability and discernment.
